

Privacy Policy

Reaching People (Leicestershire Voluntary Sector Resource Agency) respects your privacy and will never knowingly pass on or sell your details to third parties for any purpose not specifically agreed upon, except where required to by law. We only ask for details that we need to know. It is entirely at your discretion if you wish to tell us anything else. No personally identifiable information is gathered without your consent, to comply with GDPR (General Data Protection Regulations May 2018).

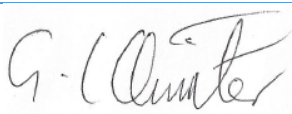

You have the right to withdraw consent for the use of your personal data. We will alert you to any impact where personal data is necessary for the performance of a contract or provision of a service.

Any requests to withdraw consent to use personal data should be made in writing using the contact details on our website. Please note that you may be requested to provide proof of identity prior to our deletion or modification of any personal data.

Statement of Liability

The content of our website and information you receive is mainly for information purposes only. We aim to keep all content accurate and up to date but this is not always possible. Therefore no representation or warranties are made about the accuracy, completeness, reliability or suitability for any purpose of the information published on our website or RP documents.

The RP website maybe modified, updated, interrupted, suspended or discontinued at any time without notice or liability. Our website contains links to external sites and products by third parties. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the content of external sites or third party products. We encourage you to read the privacy statements of each and every website that collects personally identifiable information.
